

DRIVER JAILED AFTER CAR HITS AUTO, TRUCK

James Williams, 40, of Lake-land, Fla., and Arendtsville, was arrested for reckless driving Monday afternoon following an accident involving two cars and a borough truck on Buford Ave.

Borough police said the borough truck was parked along the side of the street while workmen were engaged in repairing curbing at the Seminary property.

Williams came over Seminary Ridge, traveling east, and applied his brakes when he saw the parked truck. His car skidded into the truck, then veered off and collided with a westbound auto operated by Emma Mae Sollenberger, 30, Gettysburg R. 3.

Damage to the car operated by Williams and owned by Richard McIntosh, Winter Haven, Fla., was estimated at $300. Damage to the car driven by Mrs. Sollenberger and owned by her parents-in-law, Henry and Emma Sollenberger, Chambersburg R. 4, was estimated at $250. Damage to the parked borough truck was listed as $150.

Borough police charged Williams with reckless driving before Justice of the Peace Robert P. Snyder. Unable to immediately pay the $30 fine and costs Williams went to jail until the amount was paid late Monday evening.

2 DEFENDANTS FOUND GUILTY IN COURT HERE

Two juries returned verdicts of guilty in Adams County court Monday afternoon.

A recommendation of "leniency" accompanied the guilty of larceny verdict against George Morman, Biglerville R. 1, handed up by foreman Henry F. Semke, York Springs R. 1, for that jury after it had deliberated for an hour.

Morman had been accused of burglary and larceny in connection with the alleged theft of a revolver from a cabinet in a barn. After the Commonwealth testimony had been presented, the burglary portion of the charge was dropped.

Morman, a fruit worker, told the jury he had found the revolver in an orchard while working there. He said he had kept the revolver for some time and when no one claimed it assumed by then it belonged to him. Morman later sold the gun for $15.

DRIVED CONVICTED

Ronald L. Kauffman, Smithburg R. 2, Md., was found guilty of a charge of driving while his license was suspended. State Police Officer Ramon Solinski said he pulled alongside Kauffman's car and saw Kauffman driving. He said at that moment the Kauffman car veered sharply off the road and came to a halt 50 feet off the road about two feet from a tree. The officer said he did not see Kauffman switch places with his cousin, Ronald Snyder, Smithburg R. 2, but saw the two "flopping around" in the front seat of the car. Kauffman held that Snyder had been driving all the time. He said he had been working on the car and it was "rough" and thus when the police car pulled up he told his cousin to get off the road and stop because he felt the officer might want to stop the car for various reasons. Snyder gave similar testimony.

In court Monday both Kauffman and Snyder had similar haircuts. The officer held that at the time of the arrest Snyder had a short haircut and thus there was no difficulty in determining which had been at the wheel when the officer came upon the Kauffman car.

Surviving is a brother, Samuel B. Noel, Biglerville R. 2; a half brother, Harry Noel, Biglerville, and these half sisters: Mrs. Minerva Funt, Biglerville R. 1; Mrs. Alva Goodyear, Quenton, Pa.; Mrs. William Dillman Sr., Gettysburg, and Mrs. Elsie Kuhn, Biglerville.

She had resided more than half of her life with the Arthur E. Rice family, 135 W. Broadway.

Funeral services Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Dugan Funeral Home, Bendersville, with the Rev. Norman J. Wilson and Rev. Dr. Henry W. Sternat officiating. Interment in Biglerville Cemetery. Friends may call Wednesday evening from 7 to 9 at the funeral home in Bendersville.

Prosser, York Springs R. 1; Richard G. E. Cline, Gettysburg; Kermit Jacoby, Gettysburg R. 4; Mary A. Roberts, Gettysburg; Gladys Sprengle, Gettysburg; Jay P. LBJ Reported Hesitating On Selecting Humphrey For VP; Seating Disputes Not Yet Settled; Peacemakers Keep Busy

By JACK BELL and HARRY KELLY
ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) — President Johnson's peace-makers worked backstage today in a new effort to shape the 1964 Democratic National Convention into an LBJ unity spectacular unmarred by Southern disharmony.

As part of this strategy to keep Democratic ranks intact, the President was reported hesitating over the possible choice of Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey as his running mate because of evidence of Dixie opposition.

As the convention went into a second day it still faced smoldering disputes over the seating of the Alabama and Mississippi delegations.

Johnson, who has said he wants all the people of the nation to unite under his tent, was trying to find a way of cooling off these two fires before they erupt into a floor fight and per-haps anger other Southern states.

The rebel Alabama delegates who refused to sign a pledge to support the party's nominees were told to surrender their credentials.

Only 13 members of the delegation — 6 delegates and 7 alternates — have signed the pledge but Monday night all the Alabamians brushed past guards and took their seats anyway.

ASKED FOR PASSES
When they returned to their hotel, a telegram was awaiting them from David Lawrence, chairman of the Credentials Committee, asking them to surrender their passes.

There was no immediate decision whether they would.

As the President held back on his decision on a running mate, one of the men he vetoed for the job — Atty. Gen. Robert F. Ken-

She was a member of the Volunteer Sunday School Class of St. Paul's Church and of the Lutheran Church Women. She had also attended the Sunday School of Christ Lutheran Church. She had a record of 45 years of perfect attendance at Sunday School.

SAYS INDIANS WERE SLIGHT, MUSCULAR MEN

Contrary to descriptions given by John Smith and William Penn, the American Indian who inhabited this area "was no Tarzan," Barton Olinger, local student of the county's earliest inhabitants, told the Rotary Club at its meeting Monday evening at the Lamp Post Tea Room.

The evidence supplied by skeletons indicated "the Indian of Adams County was a small man, almost never more than five foot five. He was of very slight build and probably seldom weighed more than 130 pounds. His bones are especially light and delicate as compared to almost all other human types and delicate modeling of the facial bones is conspicuous in Indian skeletons. Despite this he was almost always an exceedingly muscular man, as is indicated by the form of those parts of his bones which were at the ends of muscle bundles."

EXTREMELY TOUGH
"All evidence from the skeletons suggests that the Indian was wiry, strong and extremely tough," Olinger said. He added that the skeletons indicate the Indian "ordinarily had lost all but a few of his teeth before he was 35 years old," since his teeth were "subject to the same decay and diseases as ours and to much more wear."

"Our Indian scarcely ever lived to be 40 years old and usually died before he was 35. Probably his diseased teeth and the effects of the infections they caused were a prelude to death. Various arthritic and rheumatoid diseases were remarkably frequent and often severe, judging by the evidence of the skeletons."

Olinger described the "Sheep Rock Shelter" in Huntingdon County where in recent years excavation has disclosed great amounts of Indian artifacts including "grass mats upon which the Indians slept and sat." Also found was the lower jawbone of a man. "An interesting feature of this jawbone was that it had once been boiled. From old documents one learns that it was a common occurrence for the Indians of our section of the country to eat the dead of hostile tribes."

First men to set foot in Adams County, Olinger said, was the Paleo-Indian, some 15,000 years ago, as evidenced by finding their spear points. The most extensive

Will Induct Two Countians Sept. 17

The Adams County Selective Service Board received orders Monday to send two countians to Harrisburg for induction on September 17.

On the same date, 36 men will be sent to Harrisburg for their final physical examinations. Thirty-four of the group will be 18-year-olds.

Only one man was inducted from the county in August, Richard E. Kehr was inducted in the armed forces on August 18.

60 PRIZES

Discussion of prizes to be awarded in the parade led the group to vote for 60 prizes of $1 each for the kiddies in costume, to be distributed by judges during the parade. In addition, the group decided to secure lollipops or balloons or both so that each costumed youngster will "win" at least something by being dressed up and in the procession.

Other prizes listed included $100, $75 and $50 for bands, plus $25 each for all other high school bands participating; $40, $25 and $15 for senior nonmusical costumed groups; $30, $25, $15 and $5 for junior nonmusical costumed groups; $50, $30 and $20 for senior floats on the Halloween theme; $45, $25 and $15 for floats on a Halloween theme; $75, $45 and $20 for floats to be judged on beauty; $5, $4, $3, $2 and $1 for small, decorated vehicles. In addition there will be $75 in prizes in the annual poster contest held as part of the Halloween program.

DIFFERENT CLASSES
The committee hopes that various clubs will sponsor different classes of prizes. The Exchange Club has already agreed to sponsor the junior floats competition by providing the money for the prizes in that event. Several other organizations have also donated sums but have not as yet been designated classes. J. William Ditzler, general chairman for the Halloween activities expressed the hope every organization will donate toward the event.

Individuals are also urged to send donations toward the $1,000 cost of the Halloween program.

Smith, charged by Conewago Twp. Police Chief Thomas G. Carbaugh, held that he was not the driver of the car at the time on which the charge was based. He held his brother, James Smith, had been the operator when his auto was in an accident in the Conewago Twp. area.

The jury hearing the case included Mary A. Roberts, Gettysburg; Kenneth L. Fair, Gettysburg; Clinton O. Sentz, Littlestown; Thomas L. Lawrence, Hanover R. 4; Esther R. Four Represent Area Democrats

The Nineteenth Congressional District of Cumberland, Adams and York Counties is being represented at the Democratic National convention by two York real estate men, a York labor leader and a New Oxford pretzel maker, elected at the April 28 primary.

An independent Democrat, Paul L. O. Niesley, York, owner of a dairy farm in South Middleton Township, Cumberland County together with B. A. Wagner, York R. 3, are the two real estate men. Jack R. Barnhart, York, vice president of the York County Labor Council, and Adams County Chairman Fred G. Klunk, a former state official who owns and operates the Quaker Pretzel Company of New Oxford, are the delegates.

The four are quartered at the Hotel Dennis, headquarters for the Pennsylvania delegation.

School Patrols To See Police Rodeo

Thirty-seven Gettysburg school patrol boys and girls will go to Hershey Thursday to view the State Police Rodeo under a program arranged by Chief of Police Jack Bartlett.

The group will meet at 11:45 Thursday morning at the Gettysburg Junior High School auditorium to board a chartered bus for the trip. The bus will leave at noon.

Chief Bartlett said there are approximately 45 school boy patrol members serving the local parochial and public schools, but only 37 were able to make the trip.

The chief said he arranged the trip for the youngsters because "they do a very good job for the community during the school year."

INFANT NEEDS SURGERY

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. George Grawe, Baltimore St., was removed by Gettysburg ambulance Monday afternoon from Warner Hospital to St. Christopher's Hospital, Philadelphia, for surgery to correct a digestive malfunction.

Gettysburg Shoe Plans 4th Plant

The Gettysburg Shoe Company has awarded a contract for the construction of its fourth large plant at Camp Hill. It was announced today by Bruno Roedel, secretary-treasurer of the company.

He said the new plant will not affect in any way the continuation of operations at the Gettysburg plant. There will be storage and shipping facilities at the new Camp Hill plant as well as manufacturing operations.

Gettysburg will continue to be the main plant and the largest operated by the company, Mr. Roedel said. The company also has plants at Dillsburg and East Berlin.

Part of the Camp Hill building is expected to be ready for occupancy by December 1.

PARADE WILL HAVE PRIZES FOR CHILDREN

All youngsters participating in the Halloween parade here October 23 will receive a prize—at least a lollipop or a balloon—according to discussion at Monday evening's meeting of the Halloween committee at the Holiday Motel ballroom.

The Kiwanis Club, which heads up the committee this year, named general committee, to which will be added others, because plans call for "all organizations and individuals to join in sponsoring this community affair."

60 PRIZES
Discussion of prizes to be awarded in the parade led the group to vote for 60 prizes of $1 each for the kiddies in costume, to be distributed by judges during the parade. In addition, the group decided to secure lollipops or balloons or both so that each costumed youngster will "win" at least something by being dressed up and in the procession.

In addition there will be $75 in prizes in the annual poster contest held as part of the Halloween program.

SUMMER SCHOOL REPORT

Students also were asked if they intend to finish high school, whether they planned college or other post-high school education and whether they would attend a technical school for job training if the opportunity were offered.

The county board listed the area technical school plans for special attention at the October meeting.

The county board members Monday evening also received a report from Lewis M. Bosserman, who headed the staff of the six-week summer school for migrants' children that was conducted by the county board with state money at Arendtsville.

ENROLLMENT GREW

Mr. Bosserman said the school opened with six pupils and closed last week with an enrollment of 29. He said the youngsters have normal intelligence but have been retarded in their educational work because of their lack of regular schooling. He said parents showed great interest in their children's progress at a final open house last week.

County Superintendent of Schools M. Francis Coulson told the board the Negro and Puerto Rican children enrolled at the school were regular in attendance, neat and clean and of "better quality" than earlier years. He said he was "highly pleased" with the services of the staff headed by Mr. Bosserman and said he believed the program had been "of great benefit" to the children.

Local CWRT Plans Camp Hill Visit

The Gettysburg Civil War Round Table Thursday evening will visit existing fortifications Union troops threw up in Camp Hill when Confederate forces threatened Harrisburg before turning southeast to Gettysburg in 1863.

John J. Cougha, a past president of the Harrisburg Civil War Round Table will be in charge of the program for the local group which will leave from the GAR post home, E. Middle St., at 6 o'clock Thursday evening to drive to the parking lot at the Dutch Pantry Restaurant along Rt. 15 in Camp Hill. There a brief stop will be made while details of a brief skirmish between Confederate troops and Union defenders at "Oyster Point" will be explained.

Then the group will travel to the remains of a fort put up by the Union defenders of Harrisburg in Camp Hill. From there a visit will be made to an old church near Camp Hill where various Confederate batteries were deployed. Following the tour the group will dine at the Dutch Pantry.

Rates of pay for drivers of the three county-owned station wagons that haul Day Care Center pupils were approved and bus contracts for Cone, wago and Bermudian Springs were approved.

BUDGETS ADOPTED

General fund budgets for the current fiscal year for these districts were approved: Bermudian Springs (merged), East Berlin, Franklin Twp., Latimore Twp., McSherrystown, both Mt. Joy districts, Mt. Pleasant and Union and annual financial reports for many of the same districts. Auditors' reports for six districts were also approved. The board gave formal approval to changes in setups by reason of district changes in Bermudian Springs and Gettysburg jointures.

Supt. Coulson distributed to the board members statistical tables showing the current school tax rates of all districts in the county and another set of figures showing that school districts collecting occupational taxes may gather as much as a half million dollars from that source in this school year.

Financial accounts for the special education program for July were approved showing disbursements of $10,643.

All members of the board attended with President Dean Asquith presiding.

on whom Johnson has been leaning heavily in his efforts to salvage part of the South in the November election, said in an interview he had told Johnson at a White House conference Saturday he thought Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy might be a better choice from the South's standpoint.

SEEK UNITED PARTY

McCarthy, a Roman Catholic, has been regarded as one of the top contenders for second place on the ticket. He and Humphrey have paralleled strong views in favor of civil rights, but Humphrey's have been well publicized and McCarthy's have not.

Every maneuver at this convention has pointed toward a Johnson effort to placate dissident forces and emerge with his first presidential nomination, with a relatively united party behind him.

Tonight, the convention is expected to give shouting approval of what in its essentials is a middle-of-the road platform promising sturdy accomplishments toward peace and prosperity but detouring controversial issues such as civil rights.

MAY GO TO FLOOR

The Mississippi fight between a white delegation chosen with the understanding it would oppose the national ticket and the Negro-dominated Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party remained to be settled, possibly by a floor vote.

But the flurry over the appearance on the floor at Monday night's session of members of the Alabama delegation who refused to sign a loyalty pledge was not regarded as likely to burgeon into any federal case.

The feeling among convention officials — and this applied to both the Alabama and Mississippi contests — was that there would not be any roll calls so what did it matter who was designated to cast votes that wouldn't be registered?

PASTORE WADES IN

Sen. John O. Pastore, the Rhode Islander of Italian extraction who was chosen personally by Johnson for the keynote task, shouted in the keynote address that in the November election the people will say: "We need you, President Johnson." Pastore told a frequently applauding audience that filled most of the oversized hall that Democrats must accept the challenge to maintain the "showpiece of partnership, progress and leadership" he said had been developed in the Kennedy-Johnson years in the White House.

Teeling off on Republican nominee Barry Goldwater, Pastore said that "the sanity of America is the security of the world."

"What does the Republican candidate choose to have anything mean at any given moment?" he demanded. "The world cannot wait until Saturday to learn what he meant on Monday. The man in the White House has to be understood the first time. For him there is no second choice."

and temporarily more satisfying. "The sixties can be the 'good years.' In food, housing, medication and practically all phases of life many problems have been solved and many evils eliminated. Many conditions existing in the thirties and forties are no longer known.

"However, the sixties have serious evils also. We are undergoing a process of being dehumanized and of being mere numbers instead of true individuals. We are told what to believe and do by too many messiahs who are trying to brainwash us. The enthusiasm and originality of the individual are being suffocated. We are complacent about the important things of life. But these years can be the good years. The answer to making them so lies in the desire of all of us to eradicate the evils we know exist."

President Clyde Markle presided.

SAYS INDIANS

site of the Paleo-Indian is located in Dauphin County.

CALEDONIA QUARRY

The Indian quarried rhyolite near Caledonia to make his tools. Olinger told the Rotarians of a visit to an Indian quarry on the east side of Snaggy Ridge in the western part of the county. "I was amazed to find literally acres of forest land between the base of the ridge and Carbaugh stream to be coated with one to three feet of quarried and worked stone. After selecting a small section of ground, about one square yard which did not differ from any other section I excavated down about 2 1/2 feet until I came upon the bare clay. Within that 2 1/2 by 3 feet I found thousands of chips which resulted from working the rhyolite, hundreds of discarded blanks and a section of a sandstone rock which the Indian used to shape the blanks.

"The blanks are a thin oval shape stone, with pitted chip marks covering their faces. The aboriginal manufactured these stones in this shape so that the rhyolite could be transported early. The spear points were not manufactured until the Indian reached his base camp. This tremendous accumulation of worked material indicated a very long period of quarrying, probably stretching over thousands of years."

SHOWED RELICS

Olinger showed numerous Indian relics, pointed out that most of the "arrow heads" found are "really spear heads" and quoted from the memoir concerning Andrew Shriver, Littlestown area pioneer settler, giving details of Indians who visited and lived near him in the 1730s.

President C. William Harbaugh presided at the meeting. Vice President Stanley Hull, who introduced Olinger, said next Monday's meeting of Rotary will also be held at the Lamp Post.

Two hundred fifty attended the third annual employees' picnic held by Timely of Gettysburg Saturday afternoon at Recreation Park.

Manager William Feldmeyer recognized 21 of the employees who had been with the company since early 1961 when production was started here.

Construction of a 7,500 square foot addition to lumber and mill rooms of the plant was reported well underway and will be completed in about a month.

Feldmeyer told the employees that production in the local plant had increased 40 per cent above 1963. The plant has had continuous employment since its beginning here early in 1961.

FIFTY YEARS AGO

Guides Must Be Licensed:

Regulations requiring the licensing of all guides on the battlefield have been adopted by the War Department and as soon as the necessary badges are secured, the men who now make a livelihood by conducting tourists over the field will have to secure their authority before they may continue the work. The enforcement of this regulation which has for years caused great concern to all those interested in the welfare of the tourist who visits Gettysburg. The ability of some of those who now conduct parties over the battlefield to tell properly the story of the fight has long been discounted, while the character of others and their tendency to charge extortionate rates has also been a matter of keen regret on the part of those who want to see the Gettysburg visitor secure a square deal.

Gifts in Wheelbarrow: A unique shower was given Miss Ruth Bream on Tuesday evening when she was met by many of her friends at the home of Mrs. W. C. Sheely, Springs avenue. A large number of gifts were brought to her in a wheelbarrow in charge of two youngsters dressed as bride and bridegroom, Mary Jane Snyder and Elmer H. Slaybaugh.

Improving Grounds: The local directors of the Cyclorama are having the ground leveled about the building and will make an effort to improve the appearance of its surroundings.

Funeral Halted: The funeral of the late Henry V. Shryock who died near Waynesboro on Tuesday, was halted on the streets of Gettysburg this morning when a horse in one of the carriages slipped on the trolley rail on Baltimore street and fell to the ground, breaking off the wagon tongue. The team belonged to Fleming and Bair and the funeral procession waited until another carriage could be secured, after which it proceeded to Mount Joy Church.

Best on Earth: "There are no finer people on earth than those of good old Adams County — the richest fruit producing county in all the 67 of Pennsylvania," says the Carlisle Sentinel in telling of the Harvest Home picnic at Mount Holly Springs on Thursday.

The friends of Miss Helen Kendlehart gave her a shower of gifts at the home of Miss Jeanne Sieber, West Middle street, this afternoon. The presentation was made by little Meried Crouse who was costumed as "Cupid." The party was composed of Miss Frances Sheely, Miss Marian Sheely, Miss Mary Slaybaugh, Miss Martha Neely, Miss Mary Kohler, Miss Margaret Gilliland, Miss Anna Gilliland, Miss Rachel Granville, Miss Bernadette Thomas, Miss Viola Miller, Miss Janet Robertson, Miss Amy Swope, Miss Janet Marshall, Miss Verna Swartz.

Ready for Big Crop: The Biglerville Cold Storage Company are increasing the capacity of their plant 9500 barrels by the addition of a thirteen foot story on the main building which is one hundred feet square. Quigley Hafer, a contractor and builder of Chambersburg, has charge of the work.

Postmasters: John L. Giggs has been appointed postmaster at York Springs to succeed Gil.

Today's Talk

WHY DIDN'T — ?

This is a talk about the "Why Didn't" folks — those who, after the thing has happened, persist in querying "why didn't" you do this and so? It is a faulty common to us all. We wonder why people don't always do things our way.

We all make our share of blunders and mistakes, and it is a good thing that we do, for that is the only way most of us learn to do things in the right way. But we like to discover our fault ourselves. Also it saves a great deal of interchangeable bitterness that could be avoided by silence.

Circumstances usually control all our decisions, and the "why didn't" people are rarely informal about the background of our acts. None of us seem to be exempt from these "why didn't" human beings. Even our high servants in government come in for their share. However, there is this virtue — it's the free life, and it's one of the minor faults of human nature and perhaps of democracy itself!

On the other hand it's like crying over spilled milk. A thing that is done is done, and that's an end of it. If we were placed in the position of the other fellow we well might have made a worse decision.

Human dignity is something that ought to be respected. Something is hurt in the heart when the "why didn't" interference shows up. We are all a lot of imperfect creations, put on our own as soon as responsibilities begin. We learn by stumbling and blundering. Respect for other people's opinions raises our own self-respect.

The ones most concerned as to the use of this phrase of "why didn't" are ourselves. We should use it, as we undoubtedly do, over and over again! When we do, it's a wholesome sign, for to recognize our mistakes is the first step in improvement.

Tomorrow's subject: "Far-Off Good."

Just Folks

LITTLE VEXATIONS
This life of ours is much too brief
To fret over trifles quickly cured.

There is too much of solid grief
By every man to be endured.

If we such keen resentment show
When little irritations sting,
How shall we brave the heavier blow

Which time to use will surely bring!

Which time to us will surely
bring.

If small annoyances destroy
What bit of patience we possess,

What armor can our hearts employ
Against life's greater bitterness?

What fools are we our lives to mar

With trifling cares that quickly go,

When it is sure beyond them are
The greater griefs which all must know.

JACKY LEE IS HAILED AS BOON TO "BRONCOS"

FORT COLLINS, Colo. (AP) — Whether it's for two years or whether it's forever, Jacky Lee is a sight for sore eyes in Denver. Jack Faulkner, the Broncos' coach, is like a kid with a new toy.

"I'll take Lee anyway I can get him," said Faulkner. "In this business you go along from year to year. Who knows? After two years maybe we can get him away from them anyway. I'm not going to worry about two years from now."

Lee, the No. 2 quarterback behind George Blanda at Houston, recently was sent to Denver on a two-year loan with the understanding he is to be turned back to the Oilers at that time.

EXPERIENCED QB
"This gives us a guy who can lead us," said Faulkner. "It is the first real experienced quarterback we've had since I have been here, except Frank Trippuca."

"We really needed help at quarterback. John McCormick had a knee operation last year and Mickey Slaughter had a dislocated shoulder last season. We had to go with Don Breau. If Breau had been hurt last season we would have had to use Lionel Taylor at quarterback."

Lee will have a fine target in split end Taylor who has led the pass receivers in each of the AFL's four years. Bill Groman is behind Taylor.

Matt Snorton, a rookie from Missouri State, probably will out Tom Rychel as tight end. Bob Scarpitto is the flanker but Faulkner has come up with a speedy rookie in Odell Barry of Findlay.

HIGH ON CORNER MEN

Fullback Billy Joe and halfbacks Gene Mingo, Charlie Mitchell and Hewitt Dixon will handle the running.

Eldon Danenhauer and Jim Perkins at tackles, Tom Nomina and Bob McCullough at guards and Giant rookie Ray Kubala of Texas A&M at center probably will be the front line. Harold Olson and Jerry Sturm will be the swing men.

Faulkner is high on corner men Willie West acquired from Buffalo, and Willie Brown, a second year man from Grambling. Goose Gonsoulin plays the right safety.

OUT OF ACTION

Tommy Janik is out of action for a few weeks with a shoulder injury while Norm Bass, former Kansas City pitcher, fights veteran Billy Atkins for the job. Leon Mavity, signed by Denver for both football and baseball, will be a reserve defensive back.

Two ex-New York Jets, end Ed Cooke and tackle Charlie Janerette, will be on the defensive line with Ray Jacobs and Leroy Moore or Chuck Gavin.

Work Guarantee Clause Is Hailed

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A guarantee-of-work clause for 51 weeks a year in a new one-year contract for 749 employees of the National Sugar Refining Co. has been hailed by both management and union leaders as the answer to the problem of automation.

The new contract, signed Monday by the company and the Sugar Refinery Workers, Local 1648, will run until Sept. 30, 1965. The guarantee-of-work clause applies to all employees hired by the company before Sept. 1, 1959. It will be a permanent part of all future contracts, according to both labor and management.

Constellation Is Still Unbeaten

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP) — Constellation has moved a step closer to selection as the yacht to defend the America's Cup next month, beating American Eagle again to remain undefeated in the final trials.

Observers feel a Constellation victory in today's race will prompt the race committee of the New York Yacht Club to choose her over American Eagle.

Constellation, with Bob Bavler at the helm, scored a 4 minute and 15 second victory over American Eagle Monday, giving her a 6-0 record in the final trials.

YOUNG POLISH WALKER CAN'T BE U. S. ENTRY

By ED D'MOCH
Associated Press Writer

CHICAGO (AP) — A young walker of championship caliber, who cannot compete for the United States because he lacks full citizenship, said today he wants to represent his native Poland at the Olympic games in Japan.

"I have thought out my problem very carefully," Matt Rutyna told an interviewer, "and I've decided that I just have to compete in the Olympics this year or I never will."

"For this reason, I have written the Polish Athletic Union and asked if I can compete for Poland in Japan."

CAME HERE IN '39

Rutyna is 33 and unmarried. He came to the United States in 1939 and recently obtained his first citizenship papers. His full citizenship, when granted, will come in 1969.

Under rules governing the U.S. Olympic trials for the 50-kilometer race walk to be held Sept. 5 in Seattle, "the first three citizens of the United States who finish the distance" will represent this country in Tokyo.

The lean, muscular walker has been competing in this country since about a month after he came to Chicago in 1939 on a student visa. Through an act of Congress, brought by U.S. Rep. Roman Pucinski, D-Ill., Rutyna was permitted to remain in the United States when his visa expired.

BEATS RECORD

He won 12 of his first 16 races at distances of three miles and more. Two weeks ago, he was timed in an unofficial 4 hours, 25 minutes and 15 seconds for 50 kilometers.

The American record for the 50 kilos is 4:44.14, set by Chris McCarthy of Chicago in 1963. The Olympic record of 4:25.30 was set at Rome in 1960 by Donald Thompson of Great Britain. The world record is 4:14.24 set by A. Pamich of Italy in 1961 at Rome.

Warrior Football Squad 2ND PALOMINO HORSE SHOW HELD SUNDAY

The "beef" has returned. For many long, lean, hungry years Gettysburg High School football fans have been asking themselves, "Where are the big men? When is Gettysburg going to have 'beef' in the line and bigger men in the backfield?" A word to the faithful is "watch the Warriors in '64."

Don Young starts his sixth season at the Gettysburg helm and from all indications the Warriors are on their climb back to the top. Young presently has 35 football players on his roster and his blue unit or starting 11 could be mistaken for some college freshman team.

The right side of the line, where the strength of the forward wall can be found, consists of end Bill Jones, 6', 165; tackle Jim Rowe, 6'1", 192, and guard Dave Lutz, 5'6", 174. On the left side Young has been utilizing the services of sophomore Jim Cullison, 6', 190, at end; tackle John Waybright, 5'9", 205, and guard Tom Hefflin, 5'10", 192. The center post is the only spot which does not have a letterman returning. Craig Smith has been doing a fine job and has been the leading candidate. Smith is 5'6", 185.

The Warrior backfield would make any coach smile from ear to ear. Take a veteran like Dick Finkboner, 6'1", 202 pounds, and put him at quarterback to lead the operations and a coach has an excellent start. However, sprinkle the backfield with a full-back like Ron Plank, 5'6", 180, and halfbacks such as Dave Perdue, 6', 200, and Mike Herring, 5'8", 170, and there's bound to be trouble for any opponent.

POWER BACKFIELD

The Warrior coaches would rate the overall team speed as average, but the backfield would be rated as a strong, powerful running backfield lacking the quick break away runner. The line will average about 186 pounds per man and has good average moves.

The Warriors will lack depth at the tackles but will have second unit men who can handle the job at the remaining posts. Ends seem to be the strongest line spots. Besides Hefflin, Jones, Lutz, Rowe and Waybright, the sixth letterman is end Dick Walker who will be counted upon to see plenty of action.

Finkboner and Plank are the only lettermen in the backfield, but with Perdue and Herring coming along, the situation is no problem. Perdue runs well both inside and outside and enjoys running over the opponents. Herring is a quick thinker and will utilize his interference to the fullest extent. He can also handle either the inside or outside running game.

Junior Charlie Raffensperger is giving Finkboner plenty of trouble for the starting quarterback assignment. Young says both men are fine players, they know how to call a good series of plays and they have that "take charge" attitude. Finkboner is the stronger runner of the two, but both are equal on the passing end.

The top pass receivers to date are Mike Herring and Bill Jones. Cullison is the only sophomore to break into the starting lineup although Ron Newman and Paul Wolfe are making their presence felt.

IN THICK OF RACE

What kind of a season does the Warrior mentor expect? "We'll be right in the thick of things," Young answered. "I think we have as good a chance as anyone right now for the Blue Mountain title. I expect the most trouble from Big Spring, Camp Hill and East Pennsboro. They all have proven themselves and they have excellent material returning." Asked about this year's Warriors compared to those of the past, Young said, "Taking our first unit and seeing how it has advanced through the first week of drills, I would say we have better potential here than we have had in the last five years."

If everyone stays healthy, the Warriors will go on a warpath such as has not been seen for many a moon. The first victim could well be Westminster on September 11 on the Maryland grounds. Following that initial contest, Gettysburg will go up against: 19, Boiling Springs, away; 25, Shippensburg, home; October 2, Camp Hill, home; 10, Susquehanna, away; 16, Northern, home; 24, East Pennsboro, away; 30, Big Spring, home; November 7, Newport, away; 13, Biglerville, home.

WILL REVIVE AIR RACES AT RENO IN SEPT.

By BILL STALL

Associated Press Writer
RENO, Nev. (AP)—There's a right time for everything, says stocky, blue-eyed Bill Stead. "All at once, this seems to be the right time for air racing."

Stead, 40, had been thinking about revival of the national championship air races almost since they were abandoned at Cleveland more than a decade ago. Until the past two years, he was unable to get anything more than moral support.

"Suddenly, everybody's interested," says Stead, a Reno cattleman and former world champion speedboat driver.

9 DAYS OF IT

On Sept. 12, engines will roar into life at dawn at Clearwater, Fla. Souped-up World War II fighters take off for the Reno to open nine days of racing, aerobic competition, sailplane soaring and exhibitions in the national championship air races of 1964.

The previous races folded for several reasons. Civilization was creeping in on likely racing areas and creating hazards that sometimes turned into tragic accidents. Aviation authorities tightened requirements.

Military jets began to dominate, Stead adds. Then came a rule that only one jet could fly around the tight, closed pylon course at one time. The winner was determined on the basis of time.

NO JET TO RACE

"We've analyzed all the gripes of the old air races — not that they weren't great. But we're trying to upgrade this as much as we can."

Jets will be on the shelf at the 1964 races — for inspection and exhibition, but not for racing. This, combined with a spacious natural desert racing area, will allow seven planes to race around the 8½-mile unlimited course at once.

"These planes are going to go as fast as the jets could around this course, maybe faster," Stead says.

$50,000 IN PRIZES

The race course is in Spanish Springs Valley, an early-day ranch area 15 miles northeast of Reno's tourist accommodations and casinos.

The crowd will watch from grandstands in the center of the course. Prize money will total nearly $50,000.

Only Micronesians may own land or businesses in Micronesia.

Nicklaus Near $100,000 Mark

DUNEDIN, Fla. (AP)—The $2,900 Jack Nicklaus won in the American Golf Classic Sunday pushed his total winnings for the year to almost $100,000.

The professional golfer's association reported Nicklaus has banked $99,117 while winning 3 of the 20 tournaments in which he competed.

Arnold Palmer, who won $3,300 for a third place finish in the American, has earned $93,743 in 21 tournaments and Tony Lema is third in the standings with $70,938.

RALSTON AND M'KINLEY WIN DOUBLES TITLE

CHESTNUT HILL, Mass. (AP)—Dennis Ralston and Chuck McKinley, the young men who returned the United States to world tennis supremacy, are one-third of the way home toward an impossible goal.

"Mission one-third accomplished," shouted the 22-year-old Ralston after he and McKinley had demolished the English duo of Mike Sangster and Graham Stillwell 6-3, 6-2, 6-4 Monday and captured their third National Doubles Tennis Championship.

"Our goals for the summer," Ralston said, "have been this — win the national doubles and retire the cups. Then Forest Hills."

That's where the quest becomes impossible.

"Naturally we can't both win the singles, but we'll both be trying," Ralston said. "One of us should win it."

"Then here's the Davis Cup. We've got to show that it was no fluke in Australia, by keeping it."

McKinley, 23, and Ralston, 22-year-old Southern California student, were the key factors in the United States' Davis Cup triumph a year ago and are the principal figures in the defense against the winner of the Sweden-Australia interzone match in Cleveland next month.

The ease with which they dispatched the Britons—the first English pair to reach the finals since 1903 — indicated they were ready. Neither lost his serve or was in danger of doing so.

It was the third doubles championship for the two—previous victories came in 1961 and 1963—and retired the silver bowl emblematic of the championship. The last duo to win three were Bill Talbot and Gardner Mulloy, who won their third title in 1946.

BROWNS STICK WITH GROZA; TRADE KICKER

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

There were 28 seconds remaining on the clock. Cleveland's Lou Groza calmly lined up his field goal attempt with the Browns trailing the Los Angeles Rams 28-27 in the National Football League championship game.

As Groza approached the ball for the all-important kick, on the sidelines, the Browns already were heaving their helmets in the air in a sign of victory.

That was 13 years ago, and Groza justified the Browns' confidence, kicking the winning field goal.

FEELS GOOD

Once again, Monday, the Browns expressed their confidence in Groza, now a 40-year-old veteran of 18 professional football seasons, by trading rookie kicking specialist Dick Van Raaphorst to the Dallas Cowboys for an undisclosed draft choice.

There had been speculation that Van Raaphorst, a 10th round draft choice from Ohio State tutored by Groza, would replace his teacher as the Browns extra point and field goal kicker.

"I feel good this year and will play as long as I can," said Groza. "I never work on the principle of leaving."

"I'll probably be around until they sweep me out."

NEAR 1,000-MARK

They may never sweep him out of the record books.

The alltime leading scorer in the NFL, Groza, holds eight league records and his seniority as a pro dates back to the original Browns of the now defunct All-American Conference.

Groza will be shooting to hit the 1,000-point mark in his NFL career this season. He has scored 987 points on 176 field goals, 453 extra points and one touchdown.

ONE OTHER TRACK

The touchdown came on a pass from Otto Graham in 1950 on a since outlawed tackle eligible play.

One other trade was concluded during the day as the 22 pro football clubs trimmed their squads to get down to the 45-player limit by the Tuesday deadline.

The Green Bay Packers reduced their squad below the limit by trading veteran defensive lineman Urban Henry to the Pittsburgh Steelers for a future draft choice.

ADVERTISE IN THE TIMES

Braves Wallop Phils With Carty's Bat; Giants Beat LA; Twins Edge Chisox 4-3

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Rico Carty of the Milwaukee Braves admits he was a bit over-anxious about breaking into organized baseball.

He signed with just about every club in the Dominican Republic. And with San Francisco. And Cincinnati. And he had his runaway pen in hand, ready to sign with St. Louis, when Milwaukee protested.

But the Braves haven't protested since.

A 24-year-old outfielder making a bid for Rookie of the Year honors in the National League, Carty slammed five straight hits — a homer, three doubles and a single — as the Braves walloped the first-place Philadelphia Phillies 12-9 Monday night.

AVERAGE IS .323

Carty has hit like that in the Braves' chain ever since they took his ink well away by appealing to the late George Trautman, then the president of the minors.

Seems that Carty — "I was just a kid and I didn't realize what I was doing" — had signed with the Estrellas club in the Dominican Republic before wailing his pen for the Giants and Reds. The Estrellas club had sold Carty to the Braves.

Against the Phillies, Carty doubled in the first, singled in the second, homered in the fourth and doubled in the fifth and the seventh, lifting his average from .312 to .323 with the spurt while bringing his home run output to 13 and his runs batted in total to 56.

TRIM PHILS' LEAD

The loss trimmed the Phillies' lead to 6½ games over the San Francisco Giants, who broke a tie for second place with Cincinnati by defeating the Los Angeles Dodgers 4-2. In other NL action, St. Louis whipped Pittsburgh 5-1 and Houston blanked the Chicago Cubs 2-0.

The Chicago White Sox, meanwhile, lost an opportunity to gain ground on American League-leading Baltimore, falling two games behind the Orioles after a 4-3 loss to Minnesota in the only game on the schedule.

Carty led a 16-hit Milwaukee attack against five Philadelphia pitchers. Hank Aaron chipped in with his 22nd homer and three runs batted in while Eddie Mathews collected three hits.

6 RBI'S FOR WES

Wes Covington supplied most of the fireworks for the Phillies, driving in six runs with two homers and a pair of doubles. Clay Dalrymple also homered for Philadelphia.

The Giants put it away against the Dodgers in the first inning with a four-run outburst helped along by Tommy Davis' error on a Willie Mays liner. That produced one run, a grounder by Orlando Cepeda drove in the second and Jim Hart finished things up with a two-run homer.

The Dodgers scored their only runs in the first on a homer by Willie Davis, then were shut out the rest of the way by Jim Duffalo. Duffalo, who hadn't pitched a complete game since his first major league start in 1961, allowed only six hits.

The Twins scored twice in the second inning against the White Sox with the aid of an error by Al Weis, and added two more in the third on singles by Rich Rollins, Tony Oliva and Zoilo Versalles. Then they held on as the White Sox muffed their opportunities.

The White Sox had the potential tying runs on in the sixth, but Jim Kaat picked Don Buford off first to end the inning. Chicago then closed to within one run in the eighth, but reliever Al Worthington got Moose Skowron and Buford on short flies with the tying run on third.

HOMER BY WHITE

Bill White hit a two-run homer for the Cardinals in the eighth and Ken Boyer followed with another homer, taking the pressure off Bob Gibson. Gibson was working on a 2-1 lead at that point and wound up with a six-hitter while striking out 12.

Pitcher Bob Bruce, who allowed only two hits, got the Colts winning rally started in the eighth inning with a single off Lou Burdette. Walt Bond's single and an error on the play by Billy Williams let both runs score. Hal Woodeshick pitched the ninth for Houston after Bruce hurt his back.

Littlestown Little League

Scoring in four of the six innings, the Orioles captured the 1964 regular season championship by turning back the Yankees 6-4 Monday evening on McSherry Field. Both finished the season tied for first place and were forced into a best-of-three game playoff. Monday's tilt was the third and final contest.

Steve Dutterer played an important part in the Oriole victory. The young right-hander went the distance on the mound to cap his seventh win in 10 decisions as he fanned 10 and allowed but two scattered safeties. Dutterer was also his team's leading hitter, banging out two safeties for three at bats.

FAST START

The Orioles tallied three times in the first frame when Bill Myers singled to left, Ray Murner got on via an error and Steve Dutterer singled in both runners. Dutterer later scored on another miscue. The winners scored a run in each of the third, fifth and sixth frames. The eventual winning score in the fifth came when Murner singled to center and came around on a fielder's choice and a miscue.

The Yankees tallied two runs in the third on a walk to Roy Leister, a long double by Jim Redding and an error allowing both men to score. The final two tallies came in the fifth on four walks and a single by Redding.

Redding paced the winner's attack with the only two hits. Kevin Zumbrun went the distance on the hill allowing five hits and fanning eight.

NEW PLATFORM RENEWS PARTY POLICY ISSUES

By JOHN CHADWICK
ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) — A middle-road platform that largely reflects President Johnson's desire not to rock the boat goes before the Democratic National Convention tonight. Approval is expected, with no floor fight in prospect over any of the planks.

Members of the platform committee finished their work late Monday, turning out a document that for the most part affirms present administration policies and promises to improve and expand them rather than break new ground.

CLEAR-CUT ISSUES

On the three issues that Republicans battled over at their convention last month — civil rights, extremism and control of nuclear weapons — the Democratic platform drafters drew clear-cut issues for the coming campaign.

The Republicans, adhering to the wishes of Sen. Barry Goldwater, their presidential candidate, were silent on "extremism" and control of nuclear arms. But not the Democrats.

"We condemn extremism, whether from the right or left, including the extreme tactics of such organizations as the Communist party, the Ku Klux Klan and the John Birch Society," the Democratic platform says. As for nuclear weapons, it declares that control over their use must continue to rest solely in the hands of the President.

SOUTHERN VICTORY

On the divisive civil rights issue, the Democrats wrote a plank that the Southerners on the platform committee said they could go along with and that one of them, Pierre Pelham of Alabama, called "something of a victory for the South." It declares that "the Civil Kathy Emig and Joan Scott contemplate how their Beta Chi chapter of Alpha Xi Delta at Gettysburg College can use the cash award presented to them during Alpha Xi Delta's College Officers Round Table last week at Ohio State University, Columbus. The Ruth Brinkman David Memorial award recognizes Beta Chi's development of character and leadership through education.

Rights Act of 1964 deserves and requires full observance by every American and fair, effective enforcement if there is any default."

The committee chairman, Oklahoma Rep. Carl Albert, said this means that if the comprehensive antidiscrimination measure is not complied with, it will be enforced.

The Republican platform avoided use of the word "enforce" but pledged "full implementation and faithful execution" of the new law, which Goldwater voted against on the ground that two of its key sections are unconstitutional.

GOP PROMISE

However, the Republicans promised to support improvements in existing civil rights statutes to meet changing needs and any additional measures necessary to prevent unlawful denial of voting rights. The Democrats made no mention of new civil rights legislation.

The Democratic platform strongly condemns lawlessness "whether used to deny equal rights or obtain equal rights" and repudiates use of racial quotas in employment.

Also pleasing to Southerners on the platform committee was the rejection of a plank calling for enforcement of the 14th Amendment's provision for reducing a state's representation in the House in proportion to the number of its qualified citizens denied the right to vote.

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Department of Agriculture has been asked to include Philadelphia in the federal food stamp plan. Mayor James H. J. Tate, made the request in a letter to Assistant Secretary of Agriculture George E. Mehren Monday. Tate said Philadelphia taxpayers would save more than a half million dollars a year if the program were instituted here in place of direct food distribution.

UNIFICATION OF 5 RAILS IS PROPOSED

WASHINGTON (AP) — An examiner has recommended that the Interstate Commerce Commission approve the unification of five railroads into the nation's largest system — nearly 25,000 miles.

The proposal approved Monday by examiner Robert H. Murphy calls for the merger of four lines — the Great Northern Railway, the Northern Pacific Railway, the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad and the Pacific Coast Railroad — and a 10-year lease on the Spokane, Portland and Seattle Railway.

If approved by the full commission, the combined system — to be known as the Great Northern Pacific & Burlington Lines, Inc. — would have assets of more than $2.6 billion and annual income of more than $775 million.

LARGEST RAILROAD

Murphy said the system would be the largest railroad in the United States in terms of miles of road and geographic distribution, and the third largest in annual revenues.

He recommended a number of conditions that would require maintenance of open routes, gateways and channels of trade; the opening of important new gateways to competing railroads; and protection of adversely affected railroad employees.

Murphy's recommendations were denounced in Cleveland, Ohio, by H. E. Gilbert, president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers, who called the decision "another victory for monopoly interests."

"The recommended merger," Gilbert said in a statement "would be a surrender to the financial interests that seek greater profit from minimum service, jobs will be cut by at least 30 per cent and many communities will find themselves with either no rail service or relegated to branch line status."

Four Firemen Hurt In Orphanage Fire

MIDDLETOWN, Pa. (AP) — Four firemen were injured, none seriously, when fire damaged a barn at the Emaus Orphan Home here Monday night.

Among the injured was Fire Chief Paul Foreman, who required five stitches after a falling rafter struck him in the face. He and three others were treated at the nearby office of a physician.

Foreman said the roof of the two-story, cinderblock barn was destroyed and some of the flooring damaged. Also lost were some 250 bales of straw. Loss was estimated at $5,000.

Four companies battled the blaze for an hour and a half before bringing it under control.

Foreman cited faulty wiring as a possible cause of the fire.

Scranton Talks At Lewistown

LEWISTOWN, Pa. (AP) — Gov. Scranton pledged his administration Monday night to "continue to invest large amounts of time, energy and money in improving the attitude of America toward Pennsylvania."

"When the private sector of the national economy—and that's the sector which has jobs to bribe to a state or to a community—looks today at Pennsylvania, it sees a revitalized and energetic society determined to be first in the nation," Scranton said.

The governor spoke to about 275 business leaders attending a dinner of the Mifflin County Industrial Development Corp.

Americans Report $120,000 Gem Theft

NICE, France (AP) — Irwin Weiner, former Philadelphia paper manufacturer, and his wife, Barbara, told police Monday their home on the Riviera was robbed of jewels valued at $120,000.

Weiner told police the theft apparently occurred Sunday night while they were away. The windows had been left open because of the August heat, he said.

NORRISTOWN, Pa. (AP) — William Davis, 33, of Philadelphia, serving 5-to-32 years at the State Correctional Institution at Graterford, was charged with homicide Monday in the fatal stabbing of another inmate, Robert M. Cross, 19, on Aug. 17. Cross, also of Philadelphia, was serving a life term for murder. Davis is serving his term for aggravated robbery.

"Commuter Bandit" Is Driving FBI, Police Wild

PITTSBURGH (AP) — He's called the "commuter bandit" and he's driving the FBI and Pittsburgh police crazy.

He came out of a month's retirement Monday to hold up the Pittsburgh National Bank's Carick branch for $15,040.

Law enforcement agencies are fairly certain its the same man who has taken more than $100,000 in 10 recent holdups. They've dubbed him the commuter bandit because they think he's a suburbanite who sallies forth after careful planning, stages a holdup in the city, then retires behind a facade of respectability.

SAME PATTERN

The modus operandi in Monday's stickup followed the pattern of earlier jobs. The descriptions of the bandit were the same.

Five banks and insurance companies have banded together to offer $25,000 in rewards. As yet no one has been hurt, but the bandit is always armed.

The bandit is about six feet tall and weighs about 200 pounds. He has a roundish face, wears horn rimmed glasses and Monday had on a white sports shirt and brown straw hat. Sometimes he is more natty in tweed coat and slacks.

HOW HE WORKS

Here's how he works: Monday he walked into the Carick branch about 2 p. m. Unnoticed by six customers he handed a note to two tellers. The note said: Be quick, be quiet or you're dead."

Mrs. Lois Reinhart filled a brown paper bag that he handed her. Then Mrs. Dorothy Rusche put her money in the bag.

But as the gunman moved to PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A painter was killed Monday when he fell from the top of a 40-foot ladder while painting a building at the Naval Air Engineering Center at the Philadelphia Naval Base. A Navy spokesman said a truck backed into the ladder, causing the victim, Michael Teasuro, to fall.

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Dr. Benjamin F. Boyer resigned on Monday as dean of Temple University's law school to devote full time to teaching and research. He had been dean since 1947.

New Industries Stabilize Economy Of Centre County

(Editor's Note: The pattern of education-oriented industry flourishing in the vicinity of great universities is familiar to the nation's business community. But did you know how aptly the pattern is being dramatized on the home grounds of Pennsylvania State University? Here's a report.)

By JEROME WEINSTEIN
The Centre Daily Times
STATE COLLEGE, Pa. (AP)—Ask anyone in Pennsylvania what State College means to him and the better informed will answer, "Why, that's the home of Penn State."

And they'd be correct, of course. But, if you dug a little deeper, and asked if this Centre County community had any other significance, most answers would be vague.

DIVERSIFIED INTERESTS
State College, more and more each day, is becoming greatly diversified. Higher education still dominates the area's industrial picture, but other enterprises are catching up rapidly.

Since World War II, research and development, chemical, electronics-connected and light manufacturing industries have joined the university in keeping residents busy day and night. Efforts are under way now to increase even more the role of "other industries" in State College's economic picture.

Most of the new firms started off as part-time work for one or two or three men whose careers were centered at Penn State. The university has an annual gross payroll today of $45,600, 000 and 7,103 employees (5,660 full time and 1,443 part-time).

At the current rate of growth, these newer industries, combined, are beginning to approach the university's economic figures in payrolls and total employees.

ELECTRONIC FIRM
Biggest, by far, is HRB-Singer, which deals in methods and equipment for information systems, infrared imaging, electronic component and system development, and photographic rapid processing systems.

HRB-Singer was started by three university professors in 1946. Today there are 1,084 employees, and the firm, which became a subsidiary of the Singer Corp. in 1958, is currently doing a $13.1 million business annually.

Then there's the technical materials divisions of Erie Technological Products, Inc., which produces technical ceramics for the electronics industry—mainly ceramic capacitors. Launched in 1957 with 150 employees, the firm now has 300 employees and the volume is more than $3 million.

Others, selected at random from more than a score of such firms growing up in and around State College include:

Nuclide Analysis, Inc., started with three people in 1957, employs 150 today, will hit close to $2 million this year, designs and manufactures mass spectrometers and does contract research for NASA, the Atomic Energy Commission, and the Air Force.

Centre Circuits, Inc., founded by one part-time worker in 1957, now employs 70, topped $1 million this year, is the world's largest builder of chemical equipment used in the electronics and metal-working industries. It also produces automatic controls for general industrial purposes.

Applied Sciences, Inc., started in 1953 with two people, has 40 on the payroll now, topped $400,000 in volume this year, specializes in gas chromatography and is an outstanding producer of lipid chemicals.

MATERIAL SCIENCE
Engaged in research and development in material science, ceramics and glass technology, crystal growth, geochemistry and mineralogy is Tem-Pres Research, Inc. founded in 1957 with two employees—28 are now engaged—with the year's business volume just over $500,000.

C-Cor Electronics, launched by three part-timers in 1953, employs 57 now and has a $1 million-plus volume in handling community cable systems and engineering electronics, specializing in amplifiers.

Linden Laboratories had four employees when it started in 1952, has 36 today with a $250,000 volume (expected to double by year's end), does sponsored research, specializes in organic chemistry, and produces ultrasonic devices.

CHEMICAL COMPANY
Nease Chemical moved five employees from Lock Haven in 1951, has 80 working today doing a $2½ million business, manufactures organic chemicals for the drug, agriculture, and detergent industries.

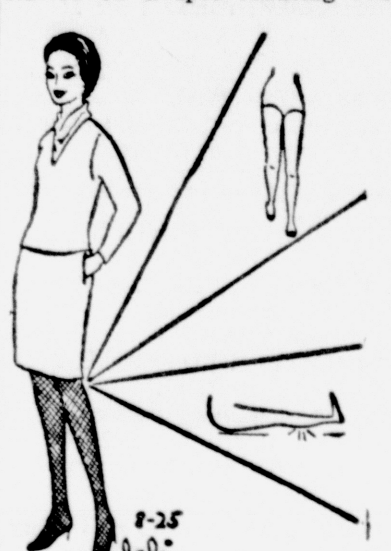

As part of the university, there's the Naval Ordnance Research Laboratory. Moved to State College from Harvard in 1945, ORL, as it is known, has tripled its employees to 353, tops $5 million annually, and is engaged in research and development of under-water ordnance, with branch units in Florida and the state of Washington.

STABILIZED ECONOMY
This industrial growth has stabilized the economy of State College and much of Centre County. It has brought with it sprawling housing developments, city-type shopping areas and, with the expansion, multiplying problems of water supplies, sewage disposal, traffic and parking stalemates.

Also new on the scene is the main office of the Commonwealth Industrial Research Corp., conceived by Gov. Scranton and Penn State's President Dr. Eric A. Walker, to get the fullest utilization of the research environment at and around Penn State by science-oriented industry, and to increase the number already functioning.

A Lovelier You

By MARY SUE MILLER
HOLD THAT LEGLINE! If you have been planning to slim your legline but just haven't gotten to it, you'd better get started on a spot reducing routine.

time. Fall fashions won't be carried off on pudgy legs.

There's a swing to skirts that calls attention to the leg. The length is not one whit longer. In fact the trend in walking and casual skirts is to bare the knee. What's more those skirts are worn with such eye-catchers as patterned and textured stockings.

So much for the pep talk. Now for the routines that bespeak quick results:

1. Stand erect and raise right foot so that right hip moves upward. Then tense muscles of raised leg, concentrating on knee area. Hold for six counts. Repeat with left leg. Alternating sides, perform 10 times in all. Through-out be sure to keep spine straight and shoulders level.

2. Sit on floor with legs straight out and together. Pull toes of right foot backward, toward knee; then raising leg an inch, "bounce" calf on floor for 10 fast counts. Perform with left leg. Alternating, repeat three times.

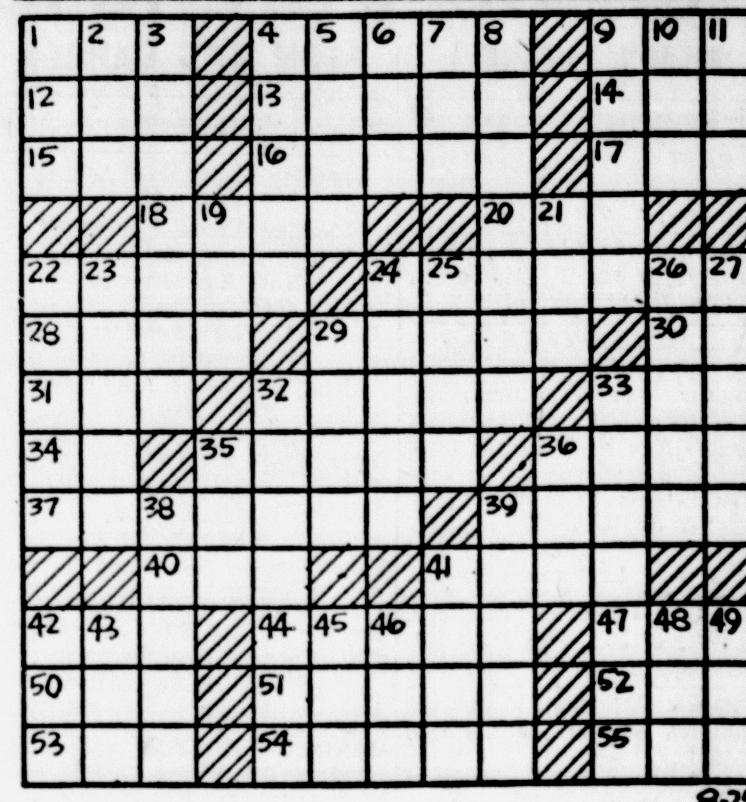

The first routine slims the knees and generally improves contours. The second one reduces the calf. And that just about adds up to a legline that can take any fashion in stride.

LEGLINE TRIMMERS

If your individual problem is heavy legs, send for my new leaflet, LEGLINE TRIMMERS, which contains spot reducing exercises that will meet your individual needs, whether for thighs, knees, calves or ankles, or for contouring your entire legline. Write Mary Sue Miller, Box 158, The Gettysburg Times, Dundee, Ill., enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope and five cents in coin to cover handling.

Beatles Play Above Screaming of Fans

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — The hills were alive with the sound of screaming Sunday night as the Beatles made their local debut at Hollywood Bowl.

It was a wild scene, man. The hillside amphitheater, ordinarily the home of symphonies under the stars, was packed to the highest reaches with emotion-wracked adolescents.

The crowd of almost 19,000 sat restlessly through preliminary acts of rock 'n' roll personalities. Finally, the Beatles appeared, jaunty under their floor-mop hairdos. Pandemonium.

The quartet breezed through their famous songs with scant regard for the shrieks that sounded almost continuously. In exactly half an hour, their performance was over. They reportedly earned $50,000.
